

Cancelling a Booking

1

If you become unavailable after accepting a job offer, you MUST let the casting team know ASAP so that they have time to source a replacement.

CANCELLED

2

Casting teams may have different processes for how they would like to be notified (ie. via text or email)

3

If you're unsure, please email the casting team directly. The project photo and description will display the specific casting team's info so you know who to contact.

POSTED BY SMYTH CASTING - Any inquiries can be directed to booking@smythcasting.com.

4

Casting may also send follow-up confirmations after your initial offer, giving you additional chances to cancel through the platform.

Send Reconfirm

Note: A production's success relies on background performers being prepared and on time. If you're must cancel, please notify the casting team so they can find a replacement. No-shows disrupt filming and will be tracked on your BW account.